Safe Harbor Notice

This presentation contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These statements are made under the "safe harbor" provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Although these forward-looking statements, which may include statements regarding our future results of operations, financial condition or business prospects, are based on our own information and information from other sources we believe to be reliable, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which apply only as of the date of this presentation. The words "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "plan" and similar expressions, as they relate to us, are intended to identify these forward-looking statements in this presentation. These forward-looking statements are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of our senior management and our actual results of operations, financial condition or business prospects may differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements for reasons including, among others, risks associated with cyclicality and market conditions in the semiconductor or electronic industry; changes in our regulatory environment, including our ability to comply with new or stricter environmental regulations and to resolve environmental liabilities; demand for the outsourced semiconductor packaging, testing and electronic manufacturing services we offer and for such outsourced services generally; the highly competitive semiconductor or manufacturing industry we are involved in; our ability to introduce new technologies in order to remain competitive; international business activities; our business strategy; our future expansion plans and capital expenditures; the strained relationship between the Republic of China and the People's Republic of China; general economic and political conditions; the recent shift in United States trade policies; possible disruptions in commercial activities caused by natural or human-induced disasters; fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates; and other factors. For a discussion of these risks and other factors, please see the documents we file from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the 2025 Annual Report on Form 20-F filed on April 1, 2026.

1H2026 Recap & 2026 Outlook

(in US dollar terms)

- Consolidated revenues grew 24% YoY in 1H2026, with ATM revenues up 35% YoY. Leading-edge advanced packaging and overall testing outpaced growth.
- For ATM business, we expect to maintain the same growth momentum into 2H2026. For full year, LEAP services revenue is tracking ahead of prior guidance of US$3.5 billion, while general segment is expected to grow by 20% YoY versus previous estimate of 13%. We expect our ATM business revenue to grow by 35% YoY.
- Machinery capex was US$2.7 billion; building, facility and automation was US$1.4 billion in 1H2026. Stepping up investment in R&D, human capital, advanced capacity, and smart factory infrastructure to support the multi-year growth.

Market Dynamics and Positioning
